Make a donation to Ancestris

Ancestris does not have any specific funding since we are all volunteers and your donations pay for the hosting of the application and participation in exhibitions.

The screenshot below explains what your donation will be used for and offers several means of payment for you to help us financially.

The three payment methods are explained behind each of the buttons.

Please visit the Association page in this documentation to learn more, find out about members and donors.

You can also make a donation directly by going to the donations page.
